

Guy F. Summers
Senior Consultant

Guy Summers is an executive coach and consultant whose focus is on performance improvement. His significant coaching successes have occurred with leaders in the arena of relationship building, star performance, diversity, self management and self development.

Many of his clients have also gained significant enhancement in their communications, team building, organization awareness, confidence, and time management competencies. These improvements often were the result of a concentrated self awareness and social awareness discovery process that utilizes assessments, interviews, and personal observation through coaching meetings.

Prior to starting his coaching and consulting work in 2000, Guy worked in the financial services industry, including over 20 years in commercial and personal banking at Northern Trust Company in Chicago.

Guy is a member of the boards of the Heartland Alliance for Human Rights and Human Needs and the Chicago State University Foundation. Guy also serves on the board of the Illinois Institute of Technology's Institute of Psychology and he is Chairman of the advisory board for the Institute's Center for Research and Service.

Mr. Summers earned an MBA at the Illinois Institute of Technology and a Bachelor of Urban Planning from the University of Illinois. Guy is certified by the International Coaching Federation (ACC) and the College of Executive Coaching (CPEC). Mr. Summers is also certified for the MBTI (Myers-Briggs Type Indicator), the CPI 260, and the DISC Instrument.