

Invest In Your Black Women Leaders

A LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE FOR BLACK WOMEN

Is your company leveraging the talents and abilities of Black professional women?

We have created a virtual leadership development program designed to equip talented, ambitious Black professional women with the proven tools, strategies and insights needed to navigate critical challenges they face as they progress in their careers.

What sets our program apart is simple – we teach leadership skills and approaches that can be immediately applied to the workplace.

Through our research and experience working with senior-level, high-achieving Black women, we have found that the distinctive challenges they face are frequently nuanced and discretely embedded into their professional experiences. Because these obstacles are not obvious, effective workplace solutions and approaches must be carefully crafted.

As double outsiders by virtue of gender and ethnicity, Black women want to know what it takes to achieve higher levels of success, visibility, and rewards while being acknowledged for their current accomplishments and preserving their cultural identities.

Over 75% of corporate executives agree that having people of color in senior-level positions increases innovation and better serves a diverse customer base. However, Black Women:

- Make up only 4% of C-suite positions, 5% of SVP positions and 7% of VP roles
- Hold just 4.6% of corporate board seats in the Fortune 500
- Earn 62 cents for every dollar white, non-Hispanic men earn

This Experience helps Black women build their leadership skills and develop a keener understanding of workplace issues while leveraging practical tools to increase impact and achieve their professional goals.
